

AAUW THE PHOENICIAN

American Association of University Women - Phoenix Branch

October 2016

General Meeting October 18th
Dinner 5:30PM, Presentation 6:30PM

Tony Sissons, owner/president of Research Advisory Services

Tony has done consulting work on Arizona redistricting, the Voting Rights Act, and demographics. Tony will speak on redistricting and political mapping.

Since founding Research Advisory Services (RAS) in 1987, Tony Sissons has provided a broad range of decision-support services to state agencies and local governments, private companies and non-profit organizations. He has a strong professional background in research methods, evaluation techniques, quantitative analysis, statistical inquiry, demography, and project management.

Since 1991, he has managed thirty-one election district redistricting processes for city and county governments in Arizona and California. All 31 maps were pre-cleared on first submission by the U. S. Department of Justice, and none have been challenged in court.

His other specialty services include evaluation of public programs, social impact analysis, geographic information system (GIS) mapping and analysis, and design of demographic research studies.

Prior to starting RAS, Tony was a Planner in the Research Section of the City of Phoenix Planning Department, and served for two years as Director of Research and Evaluation for the Roosevelt School District in Phoenix.

Dr. Linda Thor Spoke At the Meeting September 20th

Spoke to us about the importance of voting for the Maricopa County positions on the ballot. She asked that this year we vote "Bottoms Up". That is; begin marking the ballot at the bottom first and work up to the top.

She is running for the Maricopa Community Colleges Governing Board. She is for Affordable, Quality Education and Job Training.

She has worked in community colleges for 41 years. She knows that Maricopa colleges change people's lives and are integral to the economic well being of Maricopa County.

At the Meeting September 20th The most recent Martha Hoyt Memorial Scholarship Recipient was introduced and thanked the membership for their help

The Scholarship Committee invited this semester's winner of the Martha Hoyt Memorial Scholarship to be a guest at the September dinner meeting. Sofia Anzaldua, the recipient, is a Fine Arts major at Phoenix College. She was introduced to the membership by Dot Fields, Scholarship Chair.
